

JASIRI X

SOCIAL ACTIVIST / HIP HOP ARTIST

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19 @ 7:30 PM

PITTSBURGH PLAYHOUSE – OAKLAND

From Scottsboro to Charlottesville, Jasiri X will bring his insight on race relations in America to the stage of the Pittsburgh Playhouse. This unique interactive presentation provides the audience with an opportunity to join in the discussion by engaging the speaker in a question and answer session.

Jasiri X is one of the founders of Pittsburgh’s anti-violence group, IHood, which works on a community level to organize and incite change by reaching youth of color. IHood Media, a collective of socially conscious hip-hop artists and activists; utilizes art as a means of raising awareness about social justice matters affecting people around the world. Jasiri has been acknowledged by Harry Belafonte, Angela Davis and Chuck D as being at the vanguard of a new movement of social change.

PRESS CLUB MEMBER TICKETS

just $25

– a savings of 50% off regular admission -

Meet the Speaker

Enjoy preshow food and drink and meet Jasiri X plus have a seat in the first three rows for just $50

Discounted tickets must be purchased in advance. No discounts the day of the event.
To order your tickets call the Playhouse box office at 412-392-8000

Upcoming Speakers

Christopher Ruddy
Newsmax CEO / Political Insider
November 8, 2017

John Clayton
NFL Correspondent
March 19, 2018

The views expressed by the speakers do not necessarily reflect the views of Point Park University or its sponsors.
Speakers, dates and times are subject to change.